

Hilary Ann Feldman

"A breath of fresh air in this crazy world! With her generous heart, her tangible strength, and fantastic voice, Hilary shines with a talent to share her stories with her audience... and you are always glad you are in that audience!"

Karen Mason, Broadway & Cabaret Star

Unique subject matter, hypnotic storytelling, and an exquisite, versatile singing voice are trademarks of Hilary Ann Feldman. Called a "tour de force of cabaret, opera, and jazz" by the Chicago Tribune, Hilary is celebrated both for her inspired take on traditional cabaret fare and for pushing the boundaries of what that fare can be.

Whether she is exposing the love affair between Hollywood and Broadway, spotlighting women songwriters, or paying tribute to beloved icons like Audrey Hepburn and Carol Burnett, Hilary's divine interpretations and captivating presence charm and delight audiences.

From private functions and salon series to theatres and performing arts centers, Hilary Ann Feldman has several shows to engage and excite your patrons!

Laughing Matters - the Life & Laughs of Carol Burnett

The world has enjoyed a love affair with Carol Burnett for over 50 years. Her peerless, fearless character acting and delightful, self-effacing personality made her Lucille Ball's rightful successor as the Queen of TV Comedy. Take a stroll into that famous little circle of light as Hilary guides your tour of Carol Burnett's life and laughs and brings back some of her most memorable characters. Your audiences will be so glad they had this time together!

"... a tour de force of cabaret, opera, and jazz"

My Fair Audrey - a Musical Tribute to Audrey Hepburn

When you think of Audrey Hepburn, you think of timeless beauty. But Audrey was so much more than a pretty face and a killer clavicle. From WWII refugee to Academy Award winner, from UNICEF beneficiary to UNICEF ambassador, Audrey led a remarkable and exemplary life. Join Hilary for her touching, funny, and enlightening musical tribute to this extraordinary woman. A sure sell-out to the right audience. Pedal pushers and ballet flats optional!

"While offering a cabaret show based on a performer known more as an actress than a singer might be tricky, Feldman makes it all fly... a lovely vocalist... the right balance of musicality, story, and heart."

Hollywood & Broadway - a Fine Romance

Around the time Eddie Cantor was Makin' Whoopee, a handsome young Hollywood spotted beautiful, old Dame Broadway across a crowded country. He flirted until she could resist no longer. Thus began a beautiful relationship – filled with creativity, challenges and, of course, romance – that has lasted nearly a century. Experience their unique and intriguing love story, beautifully told through backstage stories, delectable anecdotes, and some of the best music from both worlds.

"One of the top 5 female musicians in Chicago."

Setting New Standards - Standards Thru Time

Why are songs from the Tin Pan Alley era still with us? Will any songs written in the last 50 years have the same staying power? What songs will those be, and who is writing them? These are the questions explored in Setting New Standards. Including in this fabulous evening of song are standards past (Berlin, Porter, Gershwin) and present (Beatles, Carole King), and perhaps even future (???). Put on your time travelin' cloths, and join Hilary for a fascinating evening of standards through time!

"Here's a singer who's not afraid of making a big statement and has the vocal firepower to pull it off."

Chicago Tribune

All the Write Women - a Century of Women Songwriters

Everyone knows the name George Gershwin, but almost no one knows the name Dorothy Fields. In a career that spanned over half a century, Dorothy penned the lyrics to over 400 songs, many of which are standards in our Great American Songbook. Her story is not unique. Join Hilary in celebrating some of the greatest women songwriters of the last century and their contributions to our American Songbook. Perfect for Women's History Month (March), but a crowd pleaser any time of year.
